

MARTINE'S WINES, Inc.®

Wine Spectator

Dominique Cornin

Mâcon-Chaintré 2008 - 87 points

Loads of apple flavor grace this clean, fruity white, which is straightforward and frank, with moderate length. Drink now through 2012. 1,392 cases made. –BS (Aug 31, 2010)

Mâcon-Chânes Serreudières 2007 - 88 points

There's lovely weight and balance between the fresh acidity, smooth texture and bright apple, citrus and straw notes. Lingers on the finish, with a crisp feel. Drink now through 2010. –BS (Jun 30, 2009)

Pouilly-Fuissé Les Chevrières 2007 - 90 points

Offers fine harmony and intensity, with aromas and flavors of lemon, white peach, flowers and mineral wrapped in a firm, tightly structured package. There's richness too, but this needs time to unwind. Best from 2011 through 2016. –BS (Sep 30, 2009)

Pouilly-Fuissé Clos Reyssié 2007 - 89 points

Dense and tight up front, featuring lemon cake, peach and stone flavors. This verges on creamy in texture, with a finish that shows its overall potential. Best from 2011 through 2019. –BS (Web Only – 2010)

Mâcon-Chaintré 2007 - 82 points

Shows a chalky, minerally aroma and flavor, with apple, grapefruit and spice elements. Tightens up on the finish. Drink now. –BS (Web Only – 2009)

Beaujolais Blanc 2007 - 83 points

Crisp acidity frames this lightly juicy white, with flavors of Granny Smith apple and star fruit. Moderate finish. Drink now. 750 cases made. –AN (Web Only – 2009)

Pouilly-Fuissé 2007 - 88 points

Round and fruity, this is a tasty white, offering pure apple, pear and citrus flavors, accented by a hint of mineral. Firms up on the finish, with just a hint of grapefruit peel. Drink now through 2015. 709 cases made. –BS (Aug 31, 2010)

Martine's Wines
Importer & Wholesaler

Wine Spectator

June 30, 2013
By Bruce Sanderson

Dominique Cornin

90 PTS | 2010 Pouilly-Fuissé "Clos Reyssié"

This white shows concentration to its baked apple, clover honey, beeswax and citrus peel flavors. Powerful, with a lingering, spicy finish.

89 PTS | 2010 Pouilly-Fuissé

A big, unoaked style, sporting apple, pear and floral aromas and flavors. Balanced in an extroverted way, with a fresh, tangy finish.