

WINE SPECTATOR • NOVEMBRE 2014

MARTINE'S WINES

IMPORTER & WHOLESALER
SINCE 1979

Wine Spectator

November 15, 2014
By Bruce Sanderson

Dominique Cornin

92 points | Pouilly-Fuissé 2012

A broad, weighty version, exhibiting apple tart, beeswax, lemon curd and mineral flavors. Vibrant, intense and complex, with a lingering aftertaste of apple and pear. Drink now through 2020.

90 points | Mâcon-Chânes Serreudières 2012

Rich and round, this balanced white has peach, apple, melon and earth flavors, with fine intensity and a long finish. Drink now.

